FKS	(40-60+ months) - Hears and says the initial sound in words. - Can segment the sounds in simple words and blend them together and knows which letters represent some of them. - Links sounds to letters, naming and sounding the letters of the alphabet. - Begins to read words and simple sentences. Early Learning Goal - Children read and understand simple sentences. They use phonic knowledge to decode regular words and read them aloud accurately. They also read some common irregular words.	(30-50 months) - Enjoys rhyming and rhythmic activities. - Listens to and joins in with stories and poems, 1:1 and also in small groups. - Describes main story settings, events and principal characters. - Recognises familiar words and signs such as own name and advertising logos. •Recognises familiar words and signs such as own name and advertising logos. - Looks at books independently. - Handles books carefully. - Knows information can be relayed in the form of print. - Holds books the correct way up and turns pages. (40-60+ months) - Uses vocabulary and forms of speech that are increasingly influenced by their experiences of books. - Enjoys an increasing range of books. - Knows that information can be retrieved from books and computers.	(30-50 months) - Shows awareness of rhyme and alliteration. - Recognises rhythm in spoken words. - Joins in with repeated refrains and anticipates key events and phrases in rhymes and stories. - Beginning to be aware of the way stories are structured. - Listens to stories with increasing attention and recall. - Describes main story settings, events and principal characters. - Knows that print carries meaning and, in English, is read from left to right and top to bottom. (40-60+ months) - Continues a rhyming string. Early Learning Goal - They demonstrate understanding when talking with others about what they have read.	(30-50 months) Suggests how the story might end.

Year One	Pupils should be taught to: • Apply phonic knowledge and skills as the route to decode words • Respond speedily with the correct sound to graphemes (letters or groups of letters) for all 40+ phonemes, including, where applicable, alternative sounds for graphemes • Read accurately by blending sounds in unfamiliar words containing GPCs that have been taught • Read common exception words, noting unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in the word • Read words containing taught GPCs and –s, –es, –ing, –ed, –er and –est endings • Read other words of more than one syllable that contain taught GPCs • Read words with contractions [for example, I'm, I'll, we'll], and understand that the apostrophe represents the omitted letter(s) • Read aloud accurately books that are consistent with their developing phonic knowledge and that do not require them to use other strategies to work out words • Re-read these books to build up their fluency and confidence in word reading.	Pupils should be taught to: Develop pleasure in reading, motivation to read, vocabulary and understanding by: • Listening to and discussing a wide range of poems, stories and non-fiction at a level beyond that at which they can read independently • Being encouraged to link what they read or hear read to their own experiences • Becoming very familiar with key stories, fairy stories and traditional tales, retelling them and considering their particular characteristics • Recognising and joining in with predictable phrases • Learning to appreciate rhymes and poems, and to recite some by heart	Pupils should be taught to: Understand both the books they can already read accurately and fluently and those they listen to by: • Drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher • Checking that the text makes sense to them as they read and correcting inaccurate reading • Discussing the significance of the title and events • Participate in discussion about what is read to them, taking turns and listening to what others say. • Explain clearly their understanding of what is read to them.	Pupils should be taught to: Understand both the books they can already read accurately and fluently and those they listen to by: • Making inferences on the basis of what is being said and done • Answering and asking questions • Predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far	-

Year Two	Pupils should be taught to: - Continue to apply phonic knowledge and skills as the route to decode words until automatic decoding has become embedded and reading is fluent - Read accurately by blending the sounds in words that contain the graphemes taught so far, especially recognising alternative sounds for graphemes - Read accurately words of two or more syllables that contain the same graphemes as above - Read words containing common suffixes - Read further common exception words, noting unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in the word - Read most words quickly and accurately, without overt sounding and blending, when they have been frequently encountered - Read aloud books closely matched to their improving phonic knowledge, sounding out unfamiliar words accurately, automatically and without undue hesitation - Re-read these books to build up their fluency and confidence in word reading.	Pupils should be taught to: Develop pleasure in reading, motivation to read, vocabulary and understanding by: - Listening to, discussing and expressing views about a wide range of contemporary and classic poetry, stories and non-fiction at a level beyond that at which they can read independently - Becoming increasingly familiar with and retelling a wider range of stories, fairy stories and traditional tales - Being introduced to non-fiction books that are structured in different ways - Recognising simple recurring literary language in stories and poetry - Continuing to build up a repertoire of poems learnt by heart, appreciating these and reciting some, with appropriate intonation to make the meaning clear	Pupils should be taught to: Develop pleasure in reading, motivation to read, vocabulary and understanding by: - Discussing the sequence of events in books and how items of information are related - Discussing and clarifying the meanings of words, linking new meanings to known vocabulary - Discussing their favourite words and phrases Understand both the books that they can already read accurately and fluently and those that they listen to by: - Drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher - Checking that the text makes sense to them as they read and correcting inaccurate reading - Participate in discussion about books, poems and other works that are read to them and those that they can read for themselves, taking turns and listening to what others say - Explain and discuss their understanding of books, poems and other material, both those that they listen to and those that they read for themselves.	Pupils should be taught to: Understand both the books that they can already read accurately and fluently and those that they listen to by: - Making inferences on the basis of what is being said and done - Answering and asking questions - Predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far	-
